Brief Summary of Bill <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Allows a member of the armed forces to renew a concealed pistol license that expired while the person was serving outside of the state, without paying the $10 late fee, if the person applies for renewal within 90 days of returning to the state.

Hearing Date: 3/18/09

Staff: Edie Adams (786-7180)

Background:

It is unlawful for a person to carry a pistol concealed on his or her person unless the person has a valid concealed pistol license. In order to obtain a concealed pistol license, a person must apply with the local law enforcement agency and undergo a fingerprint-based background check. A concealed pistol license must be issued if the person is not ineligible to possess a firearm under state law and if the person meets other eligibility requirements.

A concealed pistol license is valid for a period of five years. The fee for an initial concealed pistol license is $36; the fee for renewing a concealed pistol license is $32. An application for renewal may be made up to 90 days before or after the expiration date of the license. Renewal after the expiration of a concealed pistol license carries a $10 late penalty in addition to the renewal fee. A person may not renew a concealed pistol license more than 90 days after its expiration date. Instead, the person must apply for an original license.

The person must provide to the Department of Licensing, at the time of renewal, a copy of the original order of deployment or assignment for out-of-state military service and a copy of the person's discharge, or order of deployment or assignment back to this state.
